f.maron@iias-iisa.org

In this open call, we invite public administration professionals, practitioners and academics alike, to contribute to the 2018 IIAS Congress on a distinctive way:

- By writing a paper proposal on a dimension of administrative resilience not covered by the other calls;
- By writing a paper proposal on a different theme than administrative resilience;
- By proposing to organize a session on a given theme, related or not to administrative resilience, and by identifying committed speakers already;
- By proposing to hold an open meeting, to present or develop a new research or other project.

Through this channel, IIAS members and partners can also ask to organize showcase or other meetings.

Interested public administration professionals are invited to submit a 400-words maximum proposal.
